BIOGRAPHY

Markus Fortunato is a self-taught bassist-singer from Lyon who has been involved in underground metal since the late 80s.

Released at the end of 2012, the concept-album "Fortunato Liberty" is a logical follow-up to his former group "MZ". Band of which he was the founder-leader and formed in 1999. This group had released 7 albums between 2000 and 2010.

In the spring of 2015, Fortunato released their second album "Restless Fire" under the Brennus label. This opus affirms even more the melodic sense and the maturity of their compositions.

On these two recordings and even more on stage, the band's music will take you on a timeless journey through sometimes powerful, sometimes melodic hard rock.

After several line-up changes, the band is currently composed of Seb Vallée and Alex Faccinnetto on guitars, Sly Tale on drums and Markus on bass and vocals.

The third album "Insurgency", released in the spring of 2021, further confirms that the band's universe is between neo-classical metal and a very vitaminized AOR! A fine mix of various melodic hard-rock tendencies.

The band is currently preparing to release their fourth album, called "From High Above". A new patchwork of heavy, progressive and symphonic music with powerful and catchy choruses. Discover urgently this new album as soon as it is released on May 12, 2023.
