

FORTUNATO – From High Above
Lyrics

AFTER THE WAR

I went to war
Eighteen and strong
In foreign land, looking for the light.
Made of weakness
Walk the Darkness
I'm made of bones, flesh, spirit and blood.

Lost in the (battle)field
Only smell of Death
Taken by fear, no glory, just pain.
I don't know who
I'm anymore
Rain can never wash away that grin.

When I'll come back home
I would have lost... My soul.
My youth will be burned. After the War.

And a landmine
Ripped my two legs
Burned off my ears and took my hands
Live in the dregs
Wasted my youth

I'm just a drag, hopeless for life

When I'll come back home
I would have lost... My soul.
My youth will be burned. After the War.
Can't get back my ears
My limbs, my youth is... So far.
Nights are made of fear. After the War.

EVIL MACHINE

Dark Creatures...

A Pentagram scarred on the chest
Circles of chalk, ancient chants
A Pentagram showing some faith
But not in god no
Under a dim light only hope is bright
There's no place for doubt... Right ?
You left me no choice now just enjoy the show
Let's summon Hell... Hell

Hear me Lilith. As - mo - de - us
Grant my wishes. Ohoho
Evil Machine... To fall in love
Dark creatures... Unholy curse

A Pentagram scarred on the chest
Wanting to find a lost soul
A Pentagram burning the flesh
Easing the heart from its pain
We signed for life yet you left me, and I've Been caught in a long... Night
No one would help but the darkness inside
My personal Hell... Hell

Hear me Lilith. As - mo - de - us
Bring back my love. Ohoho

Hear me Lilith. As - mo - de - us
What have I done. Ohoho
Evil Machine... Untamed power
Dark creatures... Unholy curse
Evil Machine... Deceiving Church
Dark creatures... Unholy curse

UNTIL MY LAST BREATH

I gave my soul to a wonder
My body drifts as a wanderer
I want to relive this heat
Feel again my heart beat

Somebody to share my destiny
That my life sounds as a melody
Somebody to follow the same way
And finally find a place to stay

I still want to fly Fade in the blue sky

My soul is falling and I'm dried out
Hiding my feelings and all my doubts
Until my last breath my inner self...
Boundless Fantasy

The cold winds of the winter
Make me forget the sweet summer
And the cold air stings my bones
My sadness, heart of stone
I so needed your hand to guide me

My tears of sadness drowned in the sea
I so needed your eyes (to) warm my way
But this utter love has flown away

MY SKY AT NIGHT

Today I lived a million of dreams
Feeling like someone wakes and screams
Lost all my friends, several tens
I wanted to merge my life into yours
Lost all fires, my desires
My great love closed all the doors.

My Sky At Night
Remote horizon in my open hands
Tiny Small Light
Drowned in ocean of sands
My Sky At Night
Looking for your vision beyond the wait
Tiny Small Light
The lack of you is too late

The good time when our hands were joined
How many tales to please me hath she coined
I was so blind, what's on my mind
That is surely what she must to prefer
Her wings covered the light of the day
I stay alive just for her.

Her light is innocence
Her heat's my only defense
My world depends on her eyes
Everything was so wise.

JUST WHAT WE HAVE

In order to give anything, we must have it
Because in despair time may bring, I not to quit
Yes we can't give love if we don't, have it for ourselves
When we are in emotional, dependence something else

I want to shine and walk the line
But we can give just what we have

Do not wait to fill our lacks, love is nothing
Timelines cannot replace hard facts, no love laughing
Let's not idealize the loved one, only live happiness
The end of time will just begin and only emptiness

I want to shine and walk the line
But we can give just what we have

We must not fall into anger
Evil trial and danger
And we feed our hurts such a blessing or a curse
Dull addiction on the other
Then want to watch another
Do not require or tie just in silence love can die

Tying can only be a step
To lead us to really true love
Then you have to restore all the missing you deplore
I'm going to raise respect
Bound by my own pride to connect
I want what I've to grip so great love relationship

IF YOU DIE

Silent screams freeze my heart
As she leaves with blue & gloomy flashing lights

And I'm standing here, too stunned to cry
I ain't no kid, I know the stakes are high...

If I live and if you die,
My darling I swear that I'll...

I'll take of everything my love
You'll be proud from high above

A little boy in the house of God
Lights a candle for mom stays alive
And two little girls who don't get it all
Don't dare to ask me if mom will die...

If I live and if you die,
My darling I swear that I'll...

I'll take of everything my love
You'll be proud from high above

If I Live and If you die,
(My) Darling Don't worry I'll...

I'll take of everything my love
You'll be proud from high above
Tears are meant to ease the pain or so they say
What if there's no tear to shed ?

STORMS CAN COME

Now more than before
I think of you a lot
In my mind even more
All the pain forgotten
All the time, in my dreams, my only crime
I struggle through heavy mist, my stream of tears

Warm heart, love wish

The years go by but true love remains
High in the sky and no complaints

Storms can come trying to pull me away
My heart stays anchored to you

Although you've gone away
I still think of you
I wanna mourn away
What I feel about you
Never stopped loving you over the top
But I lost you, I had no chance in that wicked game

Storms can come trying to pull me away
My heart stays anchored to you

Even hell
Could not prevent me
From your spell
Down on my knees

I will love you for eternity
And my heart will always be yours

Storms can come trying to pull me away
My heart stays anchored to you

DAY AFTER DAY

I'm learning to live
With these memories
And all you could give
That made our stories.
I can really grown old
Without forgetting
But I'm not a stone cold,
I keep all my feelings.

A few sudden revolutions
Day after day
Absolutions step by step.

I will take pleasure until my death...
Freedom last illusion of my faith...

I'm learning to live
With all these grim lacks
How can (the) mind forgive
Shows of divine acts.
I savor all the pleasures
Day after day, one by one
As if they were treasures,
The end has just begun.

I'm finding joy in that retreat
Day after day
It's nice and sweet step by step.

I will take pleasure until my death...
Freedom last illusion of my faith...

MOMENT OF WEAKNESS

Do you remember sad city lights
Getting tender still of twilights

My dream of death in my heart
Reminds me how it all start

Summer gives up in an open sigh
To blow it up just Before my eyes

Trip to the edge of the night
A long wait for morning light

In moments of sorrow the spark
Will be forgiven
This moment of weakness pull me
To glimpse of Heaven
I'm like a blind man in the dark
To much hard pain
This moment of weakness push me
Where I am fallen

In fallen heat when day's fading
Run in the street without waiting

In moments of sorrow the spark

Will be forgiven
This moment of weakness pull me
To glimpse of Heaven
I'm like a blind man in the dark
To much hard pain
This moment of weakness push me
Where I am fallen

And my heart beats so hard
Qualm from my so close graveyard
I need to enjoy a little more
Just before it's all over

People looks like dirty folks
Innocence and holy smokes

In moments of sorrow the spark
Will be forgiven
This moment of weakness pull me
To glimpse of Heaven
I'm like a blind man in the dark
To much hard pain
This moment of weakness push me
Where I am fallen
